

Calibration of self-reported numerical confidence

Dotted diagonal = perfect calibration. Bubble size = samples in bin. Curves well below the diagonal indicate over-confidence.